They will remain in Salem for some time, visiting and looking over the country around Salem.

A FINE CATALOG.—THE JOURNAL is in receipt of a copy of the new catalog issued by the Drain Normal school. It is not only replete with Educational Intelligence, but it is so classified that he who receives it may read that which particularly concerns him, whether he be officer, patron, alumnus or student, without searching the entire book. It is the result of much patient, inventive work, and we believe that a school catalog, of this kind, has never before, been offered to the public.

SUPREME COURT.—It is now thought the supreme court will render an opinion in the mandamus case by Thursday, as the court adjourns on that day, and the members leave for Pendleton Friday to hold the Eastern Oregon term.

S. A. RIGGS, Commissioner.

The city reported against the ordinance licensing pawn brokers, creating the office of plumbing inspector, while the Silver Creek Water Co., charter was referred back to the petitioners.

Reports were received and filed from Alderman Parkhurst and Commissioner Morrison of Polk, approving the bridge work as done by Mr. Gilbert.

A permit was granted the Salem Truck & Dray Co., to put in hay scales in front of their place of business, which property is owned by the city.

The street committee was authorized to dispose of the old bell tower to the best advantage of the city.

A petition from Lewis Savage the assignee of F. A. Moore in the matter of a certificate of sale for the delinquent tax for street improvements on part of lot 4 block 4, of this city, and paying for a deed thereto, was read and referred to the ways and means committee.

Petition from Alfred Day Johnson praying for warrant in the sum of $13.30, excess in matter of four head of impounded stock heretofore was referred to the committee on licenses.

Chief Dilley was authorized to give each member of the police force, ten days' vacation, one at a time.

An ordinance forbidding the boarding of moving railway trains within the city was read twice.

The city recorder was ordered to advertise for bids for 80 cords of body fir for the city hall and fire department.

Alderman Smith was authorized to purchase feed for the fire department, to provide storage for same and to house the city grader.

Upon motion, the street commissioner was ordered to notify the Southern Pacific Co. of the city's desire that its rails be properly plankled especially at Commercial and Trade street crossing and at the crossing in front of the Salem hospital on Twelfth street.

Upon motion Fire Chief O. D. Hutson was instructed to notify the owners of the north race to put running water in the ditch at once and keep it there. This was done as a sanitary precaution.

NARROWLY ESCAPES DROWNING.

Ten-Year-Old Harvey Slater Rescued From a Watery Grave.

There are at least three boys in Salem, who, when convinced of their need of a bath will seek the family bath tub rather than in the ice cold and treacherous water of North Mill creek.

Monday afternoon Eugene Smith, Willie Vandersel and Harvey Slater, knowing their parents were opposed to their going to Mill creek, quietly slipped away from their respective homes and met on the banks of North Mill creek between Winter and Cottage streets for a pleasant swim. Harvey Slater, who is but ten years of age, was the first to get into the water, and his companions, being busily engaged in preparing to enter the water, did not pay any particular attention to their companion whom they thought was able to swim. In fact Harvey considered himself quite a successful swimmer, having taken a number of lessons and he felt perfectly safe in the water.

But it seems there is a deep pool in the creek at this point with which Harvey was not acquainted and into which he soon waded. The attention of his companion was then attracted by his splashing in the deepwater. Badly frightened the two boys on the bank, neither of whom could swim, ran to the homes of neighbors residing near for assistance. In the meantime, Willie, aged 13 years, an excellent swimmer, being attracted to the scene by the calls for help, sprang into the water and rescued Harvey from a watery grave just as he was going down for the third time. By this time Oscar G. Smith had arrived upon the scene and carefully picking up the apparently lifeless form of young Slater, began the work of resuscitating him. A great quantity of water was removed from the boys' lungs and by the application of restoratives, the boy was soon all right. After bringing the boy to shore, the brave hero, Willie Young, quietly retired from the scene, before the thankful mother could express her grateful appreciation of his services.

MARION.

Monday, 5 p. m., 1897. In the shade. Haying is about completed and the farmers are now busy cutting fall grain, which is promising a good yield. Some of the early sown spring grain will soon be ready for the reaper.

Bob Hobbs moved in to the Hawthorn property, Monday.

Mr. Shanks, who has been living in the vicinity of Stayton, has rented the Boen farm and moved in, preparatory to putting in fall grain on the same.

Jim Woodruff, of Salem, was in town on Monday and he and M. D. Ellis have agreed to join together and build a fruit dryer here near the side track, south of the Hadley ware house. We think this is a move in the right direction, as there will be a heavy crop of prunes, pears, etc., to be cared for this fall.

Chris Farlow and family have returned from their visit to California. A. B. George, who has been laid up with lumbago for the past week, is out again.

A. H. Hunt has a fine pair of Belgian hares.

That Rural Mail Delivery.

To inquiry, made repeatedly of the Salem postoffice officials regarding the establishment of a rural mail delivery system throughout the country about Salem and about which there has been so much talk in the morning paper, a JOURNAL representative is informed that there is absolutely nothing in the report, as they have not been consulted in the least with regard to such a move on the part of the postoffice department.

The arrival of Postmaster Inspector Robinson which is daily expected, may bring about some changes in the mail delivery but until then all such rumors are without any foundation whatever.

Makes Him Feel Young.

"For some time I suffered with great weakness and was not able to walk. I could not sleep nights and did not have any appetite. One day a friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and I did so. After taking five bottles my health was wonderfully improved. Hood's Sarsaparilla has made me feel young again." H. Ketas, 821 Yesler Way, Seattle, Washington.

Hood's Pills are easy to take. 25 cents.

THE POLYTECHNIC.—Summer normal has been removed to the Little Central school building, where twenty-two teachers may be found busy from eight in the morning till five in the evening. The school will continue for two weeks, closing just before August examinations.

RECOVERING.

Fred Neckerman Returns.

Walter Swartz' Injuries Not So Serious As at First Feared.

About 11 o'clock this morning J. P. Rogers and Mrs. Fred Neckerman, accompanied by Mr. Neckerman, who wounded himself at Willhoit Springs Sunday night, arrived in Salem from the springs. The party left Willhoit Springs at 3:30 o'clock this morning and, notwithstanding the long ride of 7 hours, Mr. Neckerman stood the trip quite comfortably, and is resting easily at his home on High street.

Mr. Rogers, who is Mr. Neckerman's partner in the liquor and grocery business at No. 218 Commercial street, was seen by a JOURNAL writer shortly after his return to this city, when the first reliable news concerning the unfortunate affair was learned. It seems Mr. Neckerman, while temporarily deranged, had shot at himself three times about 12 o'clock Sunday night, only one of the shots taking effect, the others lodging in the room. The bullet striking Mr. Neckerman entered his neck at a point just below the right ear and came out at the mouth, removing four teeth from the lower jaw, besides badly lacerating his palate. Upon the advice of a physician, who was summoned from Molalla, 10 miles distant and who dressed the wound, Mr. Neckerman was today removed to his home in this city, where after a few days of quiet and rest he will have recovered from his present trouble.

The many friends of Mr. Neckerman will be pleased to learn that the nature of the wound is not very serious and especially pleased to learn that it will only be a short time until Mr. Neckerman will be able to resume his place in his business.

THE SWARTZ BOY.

Walter Swartz, who was accidentally shot in the back Sunday afternoon while out hunting, rested quite comfortably last night. It is thought with proper medical care the boy will recover. Nevertheless it was a narrow escape.

FOR A NEW ROAD.—O. H. Fay returned on the morning overland from Douglas county, where he has been awarded the contract for extending the road from the terminus of the Oakland and Bohemia wagon road to the Music mine in Douglas county. Mr. Fay's contract price is $2,900. Work is to begin about August 10 and is to be completed by October 15, during which time from 20 to 30 men will be furnished employment. The wages to be paid are $1.50 per day and board will cost 60 cents per day.

BASEBALL.—Efforts are being made by Doug. Minto, of the Salem baseball nine, to arrange for a game with the Chemawa Indian School team, to be played at Salem, on Friday of this week. From the fact that the Chemawa team has defeated the Salem three times, it is not known whether they will favor us with another game but the local team thinks that they can now capture the Indian scalps and are only awaiting for an opportunity.

MISS RUNDLETT'S FUNERAL.—The remains of Miss Ida Rundlett who died in Southern California, Sunday morning, will reach Salem on the north-bound California overland Wednesday morning and funeral services will be conducted from the family home corner of Winter and Union streets, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The remains will be given interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

HOP PRICES.—The highest price paid for hops this season, in this county, as shown by contracts filed in the county recorder's office, is 10 cents a pound. A sale at 10 1/2 cents, however, is reported. In Polk county it is said as high as 12 1/2 cents is being offered, and the growers generally are declining to contract.

ATTENDED THE CIRCUS.—The matron and children of the Salem Orphans attended the circus this afternoon. This was made possible through the courtesy of the circus management who furnished the children with tickets. The kindness of the circus management will ever be appreciated by the young people.

FOUND.—A ring of keys on Liberty street. Owner can have the same by calling at this office and paying for this notice. 7 27 31
